It is recommended to print the information found under the "Captain's Report" tab at the beginning of the season and place in your team folder in your tennis bag.

Reasons you need to contact opposing captains: Confirm the match time and location ahead of your scheduled match. Contact the opposing captain to advise if courts are not playable due to rain or other weather related conditions. Advise if you are designating a player for match day to serve as captain and to exchange the line-up.

The Match Schedule is important to review prior to the start of season. Make certain that you are playing all of the teams in your flight the same number of times and that you are playing on the correct day for your level. If you spot any errors, please contact your Local League Coordinator (LLC) immediately. The match schedule tab may be referred to throughout the season to view upcoming match dates.

On the center of the home page is a blue button to enter scores. The next page you will add your match number in the appropriate box. Your match number may be found on the "Match Schedule" page or on the score card you printed for the match. Slowly and carefully follow the prompts to enter players and scores correctly. Beware there may be one or more players on a team with the same or similar names, so It's good practice to confirm both the first and last names of the opponents.
